140 The Worked Examples

Perspective Fieldbook · https://kb.jeffreysummers.com/docs/140-the-worked-examples-2/

The Demand

This week, pick one of the five worked examples — tipping, minimum wage, predictive scheduling, service charge mandates, or joint employer rules — and trace its sympathetic surface against its actual impact on your operating room. Know the difference before the next version of it shows up in your state.

The Work

Pick one worked example relevant to your operation:

☐ Tipping

☐ Minimum wage

☐ Predictive scheduling

☐ Service charge mandates

☐ Joint employer rules

The sympathetic surface of this policy:

The political aim underneath it:

What it actually did when it landed in your operating room:

What you will watch for the next time a version of this shows up in your state: